

Clothes on That Girl!!!

(Tune: Little Mermaid's "Part of that World")

Look at these clothes, Aren't they neat?
Wouldn't you say my wardrobe's complete?
Wouldn't know I'm girl, the girl who has modesty?

I've got short sleeves and long sleeves a plenty
I've got long skirts and tan lines galore
You want true friends? I've got 20!
But who cares, no big deal, I want more!

I wanna see where the clothes are
I wanna see, wanna see no cleavage!
Walkin' around in that...what's the word again?...dress!

Up where they walk, up where they drive,
up where they show no skin to the guys.
Covered - not free - wish I could see, clothes on those girls.

Betcha somewhere somebody cares, bet she's not showin' off her midriff.
Bright young women, sick of sinnin', ready to shine,
And ready to feel what real people should feel,
respectin' herself, and all the guys too.

When's it their turn?
Wouldn't they love, love to see those clothes cover up?
Covered not free. Wish I could see, some of those girls.
